What are my obligations?

You must make a fair presentation of the risk to Us at inception, renewal and variation of Your policy. This means that You must tell Us about all facts and circumstances which may be material to the risks covered by the policy in a clear and accessible manner and that You must not misrepresent any material facts. A material fact is one which would influence the acceptance or assessment of the risk. If You have any doubt about facts considered material, it is in Your interest to disclose them to Us.

Please check that all the information recorded in Your documents is correct. If there are any inaccuracies or omissions, please inform Us immediately. Failure to make a fair presentation of the risk could result in the policy being avoided, written on different terms and/or a higher premium being charged, depending on the circumstances surrounding the failure to present the risk fairly.

You must take all reasonable precautions to prevent loss or injury and comply with any security or other loss prevention conditions in Your policy document. You must notify Us promptly of any event which might lead to a claim and follow the Claims Procedure set out in Your policy. For further details and any specific obligations relating to Your trade or Business activities following Our assessment of Your risk, please refer to Your policy documents.

When and how do I pay?

Payment options should be discussed with Your insurance intermediary.

When does the cover start and end?

Your cover will start and end on the dates stated in your policy documents.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel Your policy at any time. If You wish to cancel and Your cover hasn't started, We will refund your premium in full. If You cancel after Your cover has started and provided there hasn't been a claim, We will refund the full premium paid less a proportionate deduction for the time We have provided cover. To cancel Your policy, contact Your insurance intermediary.
