Where am I covered?

You are covered in the Territorial Limits, as per Schedule, or whilst temporarily removed anywhere in the world and liability during temporary visits elsewhere in the world.

What are my obligations?

- You must take care when answering any questions we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete and tell us about any changes required under your Policy
- You should regularly review the cover provided to ensure that the sums insured remain adequate
- You must use your locks, safes, alarms and any other security measures in a sensible and practical manner to ensure the security of your home and possessions
- You must let us know if your home is unfurnished or unoccupied for more than 60 days in a row
- You must provide us with details of any building work or heat processes where the estimated contract is greater than £100,000
- You must follow the claims procedures and use the claims contacts detailed in the Policy and Schedule

When and how do I pay?

You will need to pay your premium before your cover starts or renews. The person who sells your Policy will tell you what premium to pay and the ways to make payment. If you want to pay by instalments, you will be introduced to a specialist premium finance company.

When does cover start and end?

The period of insurance is shown in the Schedule. The Policy normally lasts for a period of 12 months and is annually renewable.

How do I cancel the contract?

- You may cancel your Policy at any time by contacting your insurance advisor.
- You have a legal right to cancel your policy within fourteen (14) days from the date of purchase or renewal or from the date which you receive your policy documentation, whichever is the later. This provision is known as your 'cooling off rights'. If your cover has not started you will be entitled to a full refund of your policy premium.
- Otherwise, you may cancel your policy at any time by contacting the insurance advisor who arranged your policy. If you contact us, we can refer you to the insurance broker or intermediary firm who arranged your policy.
- Cancellation fees or charges may apply and you may not be entitled to a full refund of your policy premium. All details of our fees and charges are included in the schedule.
- If you chose to cancel your policy and you have made a claim or an event that may lead to a claim has occurred during the period of insurance, the full annual premium will be due to us.
